JACKSON-LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL
Amsden, Ohio

Foreword

When you are pursuing life's high ways and becoming a vital part of the great future, we sincerely hope that you will find time to review the pages of this volume and by so doing, live again those happy days of Jackson-Liberty, and renew again your undying love for her.

Dedication

To all young men and women of our school district who have been called to the armed forces of our country, we dedicate this volume of the "Blue and Gold."

OUR SCHOOL

SCHOOL SONG

Oh! come ye faithful students raise
The name of Jackson High in praise
As we laud her to the skies,
We'll seek the faith that never dies.

Though we win or lose a game,
Our hearts will always sing her name.
As the coming years go by,
We'll all be true to Jackson High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Forrest Jones, Homer Grove, Theodore Bigham, Clerk, Harold Ecker, President, Ray Kassing, Earl Swaisgood.

In order that opportunities and facilities for the education and training of today's youth might be provided, all people have had to take upon themselves much work and many responsibilities.

The Board of Education serves as the representative of the Community in carrying out this essential duty. Members serve with little financial remuneration so it is with a sense of civic responsibility that they accept the added burden of guiding the educational institution through this time of stress. We regret that this willingness to serve is not always rewarded by the appreciation of those by whom the obligation is delegated.

The Board of Education deserves much praise for the effort and time so willingly contributed toward the improvement of our school system, our community, and our nation.

A farmer was driving past an insane asylum with a load of fertilizer. An inmate of the asylum saw him and called, "What are you hauling?"

"Fertilizer," the farmer replied.

"What are you going to do with it?"

"Put it on strawberries."

"You ought to live in here; we get sugar and cream on them."

"Cheer up, old man. Why don't you drown your sorrow?" a friend asked Brown, who was having domestic difficulties.

"She's bigger than I am and besides it would be murder," answered Brown.

"It ain't sanitary to have the house built over the hog pen that way," said the careful farmer to his less fastidious friend.

"Well, I dunno. We ain't lost a hog in fifteen years," he answered.

Joan: "I was horseback riding yesterday and from the after effects I think I'll learn to ride side saddle."

Joyce: "Why do that?"

Joan: "It saves a little place where you can sit down the next day."

Silly: "That's my girl Easter Egg."

Dilly: "Why call her Easter Egg?"

Silly: "Because she's hand-painted on the outside and hard-boiled on the inside."

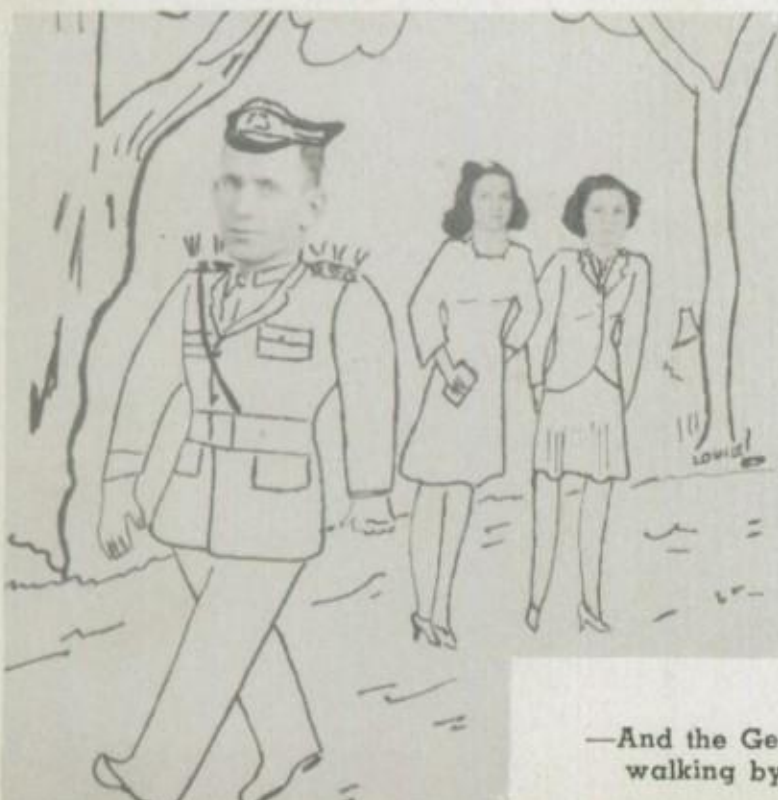

The jilted sweetheart of a gay young blade affected not to know him when they met at a party.

She: "Sorry, but I did not get your name."

He: "I know you didn't, but that's not your fault. You tried hard enough."

Slow-Poke!

—And the General went walking by—Woo!

Idealist: "Which is the more important, a man's wife or his trousers?"

Realist: "Well, there are lots of places a man can go without his wife."

Seniors

Donna Belle Chubb—Pres.
Managed to keep the Seniors straight for three years —still dreams of the guy in Buffalo.

Freda Colwell—V. Pres.
Has "really" curly hair—very industrious—likes to have fun.

Helen Scherger
Saved Sunday night for——dependable and always laughing.

Floyd Lichtle

Took an active part in sports—very dependable
—had a nice little coupe.

Richard Weissinger

Usually seen with James, tho not always—liked to have a good time.

Rita Stark

Always losing something,
but never her temper—always pitched in to help.

Wilma Durst

Quiet—but always ready for a good time.

June Snyder

Quite bashful if you know
June—she wore a ring that didn't come from Jackson-Liberty.

Julia Jeanne Lanning

Had a lot of boy friends—
Kept the Newshound and
G.R. rolling.

Carolyn Compton—Treas.
Took good care of our finances—like to take the family car out for a good time.

Isabelle Dieter—Sec.
Had a prosperous hope chest—didn't have much trouble keeping busy.

James Watson
Made a lot of trips to Hopewell-Loudon. Usually had a lot of car trouble.

Vanda Fox
Blonde hair—liked to drive the family car—always calm—very good natured.

Yvonne Elarton
Liked to play the piano—especially "boogy-woogy."

Mary Louise Fish
Liked to sing—enjoyed arguments—had the ability to entertain.

Lewis Le Jeune
Didn't have a bit of trouble keeping his "chevy" going. His hobby was sleeping.

Germaine Scherger
Very interested in music. Thought the navy was an interesting subject.

CLASS PROPHECY

By GERMAINE SCHERGER

As I was journeying in my "1955" Helicopter last month I met up with some very exciting experiences.

A knock and a bang came from the motor of my ship. "No" it couldn't be, but it was, so I had to make a forced landing in a pasture field. After I landed the farmer and his wife came out to see what had happened. I thought my eyes were deceiving me when I saw the little lady of the house was the former Helen Scherger.

After Helen had introduced me to her husband and several offsprings, she invited me to stay for dinner.

After spending several enjoyable hours with Helen, I again was on my way with new repairs and all.

First stop, Fostoria. At the giant airport I was very surprised to see Captain Floyd Lichtle of the Pan-American airway's. Floyd told me that his wife and Jr. lived near the airport in an attractive little cottage.

As I went wending my way through the crowded streets of Fostoria, my eyes fell on the giant store of Montgomery Ward and Co.

Upon entering the store, I happened to hear the manager's name mentioned by a saleslady. The name sounded very familiar, so I decided to investigate.

When I finally was admitted into the manager's office I was very happy to see Freda Colwell sitting behind the huge desk. Freda began telling me about herself and she also told me that Donna Belle Chubb's office was just next door to the store.

The next morning, after doing a little pushing and elbowing my way through the crowded streets, I arrived at Dr. Chubb, M.D. Office.

Four o'clock, Gee! I must have waited seven hours before I got in to see her.

After greeting Toby, I was very surprised when her nurse turned and faced me. The nurse was none other than Rita Stark. Then they told me that they joined up after they were released from the Navy Medical Corp. Rita told me that Toby was a very good doctor, but was still as tricky as ever.

Next morning after checking and double checking my plane, I decided to travel westward to see how the weather was in California. California, here I come.

Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri went sailing by, and by nightfall I was in Kansas City. (Some Helicopter).

After walking several miles into Kansas City I chanced to meet Richard Weissinger. Dick showed me the city and also his big hotel, which was famous all over the country. Dick invited me to come to his ball-room and meet an old friend, but he didn't say who the friend was.

I was enjoying myself very much when someone began playing the piano. Slowly things began to vision. Why of course, I haven't heard anyone play the super-duper boogie-woogie like that since I left school. Yes, you guessed it, it was Yvonne Elarton and her famous band. When Yvonne finished her performance I went to have a chat with her.

The next afternoon my Helicopter and I landed in Utah on a large ranch. The ranch looked very friendly so I decided to go to the ranch house. The door bell was answered by the housewife, who was none other than Isabelle Dieter. Isabelle began telling me that she and Melvin decided to take up ranching, so they went out west to try their hand at it.

When I finally did reach California, it was a very welcoming sight to my eyes. Upon entering Sacramento, my eyes fell on a small restaurant on the corner. So I went there to have my lunch. When I entered the Cafe I saw June Snyder sitting at the corner table eating, so I ran over, sat down and ate with her. June ordered the waitress around as if she owned the place and later on, I found out that she did. June told me there was a new play opening in town, so we decided that we were going to see it.

Upon entering the theater, I was amazed to see Mary Lou Fish's name in lights, but I wasn't very much surprised. I always thought she'd make it some day.

After the play was over, June and I both agreed that it was the first real good play we had seen since the Senior Class Play way back in "45". We waited several minutes on Mary Lou at the stagedoor, then the three of us decided to celebrate the occasion. Since Mary Lou knew all the high spots in town, we left her take the lead. She took us to the Jackson Club. About that time I was wondering what had become of those husbands I had heard so much about. Then Mary Lou told me that her husband and June's husband were out of town on business at the present time.

As I gazed around the room, I saw a familiar figure come towards our table. The handsome figure turned out to be none other than Lewis Le Jeune. Lewis made himself comfortable. Then he told me that his present position was President of the Nickel Plate Railroad.

After congratulating them on their good work and also bidding good-bye to my three former classmates, I again was on my way. This time to Hollywood, California.

Next morning, bright and early, I visited a motion picture lot. After chewing and chawing my way past the doorman, I was greeted by the Swoon King of the Nation. Who do you suppose it was? James Watson, of course. James began telling me of his past experiences, and he also told me that he married a swell jewel and was very happy in both his marriage and his work.

Next stop Washington, D. C.

I was admiring the view of the White House when a voice called my name. As I turned with a jerk, I saw Congress-woman Julia Jeanne Lanning of Ohio run towards me.

After the usual greeting, Judy told me she liked her job very well and wouldn't trade it for anything. I then inquired about Vanda Fox and Judy told me that Vanda was a very efficient secretary of a lawyer in Washington and also a happy wife.

As my trip was coming to an end I was glad to see good old Ohio again.

After landing my plane, I resumed the trip on foot, to my home. I saw Carolyn Compton on the street corner.

Carolyn told me she was the new swimming instructor at Jackson-Liberty High, and was anxious to get to work. As Carly and I talked, I saw Wilma Durst coming down the street with two children.

As I stopped her, she told me she was a farmer's wife and also a mother of two children. She said she liked her work very much.

After arriving home, I began thinking of my class and how successful they all had been. Then I was very proud and held high my head and said, I'm proud to have been a member of the Class of "45".

CLASS WILL

By RITA STARK

We, the members of Jackson-Liberty High School, Amsden, Ohio in the United States of America, realizing that our school days are drawing to a close and that the time has come for us to make our last will and testament do hereby bequeath to our many fellow students, as follows:

CLASS HISTORY

By CAROLYN COMPTON

All-aboard for Graduation. Yes, we're all aboard for Graduation, but it was a long long journey. Let's go back to the beginning of our trip through the land of knowledge. We started the trip in 1933 under the careful guidance of Miss Miller. We soon left Miss Miller behind and for the next two years Miss De Vaughn served as our guide. When we entered into the fourth part of our journey Miss Myers was at the station to greet us. She insisted that we stay with her for a year. We accepted her hospitality as it was the proper thing to do. Then we moved on to visit Miss Caskie. After leaving Miss Caskie, we stopped for a rest at the Seventh and Eighth Grade Hotel. It was a very nice hotel, but we were glad to leave it. The two guides we had with us at this hotel were Miss Alexander and Mr. Thomas. They told us to prepare ourselves for almost anything because the next four years would be the hardest and would contain the most activities.

After many bruises, ahem, we hit the trail again. The officers we elected for our first year were: Joyce Lanning, President; Floyd Lichtle, Vice-President; Yvonne Elarton, Secretary; and Vanda Fox, Treasurer. Floyd Lichtle and Richard Weissinger were on the reserve basketball team, and I might add, they were really good. Julia Jeanne Lanning served as our Student Council Representative, and Freda Colwell and June Snyder represented our class on the Newshound staff. Mary Lou Fish and Yvonne Elarton participated in the Mus'c Contest.

Now we'll move on to the next part of our trip. This time the officers we elected were: Donna Belle Chubb, President;

Freda Colwell, Vice-President; Isabelle Dieter, Secretary; and Vanda Fox, Treasurer. Floyd and Dick were on the basketball team again this year. Yvonne Elarton was our Student Council Representative.

We were very well represented in the plays this year. Julia Jeanne Lanning, Freda Colwell, and Mary Lou Fish took part in the Student Council Play. Julia Jeanne Lanning and Donna Belle Chubb were in the One Act Play. Mary Lou Fish took part in the Operetta, and also in debate. Rita Stark represented our class on the Newshound. Vanda Fox and Isabelle Dieter were the cheerleaders for this year.

Mary Lou Fish and June Snyder were in the Girls trio. The trio was chosen to participate in the County Music Clinic in which it received an excellent rating. Germaine Scherger and June Snyder participated in the local vocal contest and June received second place. Yvonne Elarton gave a piano solo in the County Music Contest. She received a medal for a superior rating. Then she went to the District Contest at Oberlin and received an excellent rating.

Now we go to the part of our journey in which we were known as "Jolly Juniors." This time our officers were: Donna Belle Chubb, President; Freda Colwell, Vice President; Lewis Lejeune, Secretary; and Vanda Fox, Treasurer. Julia Jeanne Lanning served as our Student Council Representative.

Several of the Juniors were successful in the quest for knowledge by becoming members of the County Honor Society. The group included Helen Scherger, Vanda Fox, Julia Jeanne Lanning, Isabelle Dieter, Freda Colwell, Carolyn Compton, Mary Lou Fish, Donna Belle Chubb, Lewis Lejeune, Yvonne Elarton, and Rita Stark. In our local society Yvonne Elarton was president, and Rita Stark, treasurer.

Mary Lou Fish took part in the Prince of Peace, and won first in local and county. Donna Belle Chubb and Julia Jeanne Lanning took part in Debate. Six of our class obtained parts in the Student Council Play. They were: Lewis Lejeune, June Snyder, Donna Belle Chubb, Isabelle Dieter, Julia Jeanne Lanning, and Mary Lou Fish. Those who had parts in the One Act Play were: Donna Belle Chubb, Mary Lou Fish, and Julia Jeanne Lanning.

Then comes the "play of plays." Yes, our Junior Class Play, "Mama's Baby Boy." The characters who made this play such a great success and brought our class out of the "red" were: James Watson, Julia Jeanne Lanning, Mary Lou Fish, Lewis Lejeune, June Snyder, Freda Colwell, Yvonne Elarton, Vanda Fox, Floyd Lichtle, and Donna Belle Chubb.

Floyd Lichtle and Dick Weissinger were on the basketball team again this year. Floyd was on the "first five."

Mary Lou Fish participated in the County Music Contest, and won excellent rating for her vocal solo. Yvonne Elarton and Germaine Scherger both participated in the County Music Contest, and both received a medal for superior ratings with their piano solos.

Now for the last part of our journey. This year our officers were: Donna Belle Chubb, President; Freda Colwell, Vice-President; Isabelle Dieter, Secretary; and Carolyn Compton, Treasurer. Julia Jeanne Lanning was our Student Council Representative, and Germaine Scherger represented our class on the Newshound.

We are very proud to say, that we have quite a number of Seniors who were chosen as officers of different organizations. We will start this list with Yvonne Elarton, as president of our Student Council. Others are as follows: Donna Belle Chubb, President of Honor Society; Julia Jeanne Lanning, president of Girl Reserves; Vanda Fox, president of F.H.A.; Lewis Lejeune, president of Hi Y; Freda Colwell, Secretary of Honor Society; Rita Stark, secretary of Girl Reserves; and Carolyn Compton, treasurer of F.H.A.

Julia Jeanne Lanning and Mary Lou Fish, took part in the Prince of Peace. Floyd Lichtle and Dick Weissinger were on the varsity basketball team this year. Floyd had the honor of being Captain.

Julia Jeanne Lanning and Donna Belle Chubb took part in the Student Council Play and Julia also had part in the One Act Play.

Those who were fortunate enough to be on the County Honor Society again this year are: Donna Belle Chubb, Freda Colwell, Carolyn Compton, Yvonne Elarton, Mary Lou Fish, Vanda Fox, Julia Jeanne Lanning, Helen Scherger, and Germaine Scherger.

Now we have reached the end of our journey as a group, but whatever lies ahead of us we will take it in our stride.

Main Events

The first big event of the year for the Junior class occurred on November 22, at which time we received our class rings.

Our financial projects were to help sell concessions at the basketball games and ice cream at the noon hour. We also sold American Beauty Barometers inscribed with the school name.

The class decided to present "In the Doghouse" as their class play which was to be given January 31, but due to the snow, was given on March 9.

The Junior-Senior prom which was held on May 2, was sponsored by the Junior class.

SOPHOMORES

SEATED: Hazel Stark, Mary Lewis, Ruth Fish, Olive Smith, Betty Now, Bob Lanning, Kenny Brickner, Justin Smith, Zella Purtee, Lois Boyd.

Main Events

As usual this year the "Snappy Sophomores" took part in dramatics, cheerleading, music, Prince of Peace and our athletic program.

Seasonal parties and exchanges were enjoyed throughout the school year.

All in all we endured it fairly well. We'll be here next year as the "Jolly Juniors."

Main Events

September 5, 1944—a bright and cheerful day—started our high school career as full-fledged members of Jackson-Liberty High school. By "hook or crook" we began the school term to "search for wisdom" and selected our officers.

We were duly initiated—and we do mean initiated!—early in the school year.

We had representatives in basketball, music contest, operetta, Prince of Peace, Student Council play, and one-act play for the district contest. One of our members was the district representative in the state F.F.A. speaking contest.

Next year we'll be "Snappy Sophomores"—we hope.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

GONE WITH THE GIRLS

"Gone With the Girls" is the story of the Capp family and their tricks, troubles, eccentricities and fun. When Alecia Capp, a mother of the fluttery type that one minute is worried about her brood and the next is infatuated with the idea of annexing a new father to the family, decided that her family was not cultured or polished enough she rushes to engage a companion and tutor for her children and just a companion or caretaker for Grandpa. The young folks, Marge, the announcer, Doris the worm collector, Eve the demon and Sonny the boy, switch the letters of instructions, so that the tutor takes charge of Grandpa and the companion in charge of the kids.

The young people find out that their mother is about to become engaged to Gregory Thatcher Van Stael, not wanting him for a step father, they plan to break it up.

When the tutor, Binny Ware leaves for Hollywood and the companion Lenny Fair runs off with Gregory Van Stael everything is all right. The girls and Sonny are jubilant thinking all is swell when mother walks in at the end with a policeman whom they think is going to arrest them but are greatly relieved that he is going to be only their father.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

IN THE DOGHOUSE

The Junior Class play was "In the Doghouse," and had an amusing plot. When Hannibal Maxwell's place of business burned down he was thrown into the doghouse. Not daring to let his wife know that the insurance policy on the building had lapsed; he tried desperately to borrow money. In his despair Hannibal asked his henpecked neighbor Sampson Hallet for the money, but because his wife handled the money the neighbor was unable to help. Hannibal then appeals to his oldest and closest friend, Tom Green, who practices law in New York. Tom has a friend, a Mrs. Beryl August, a wealthy widow who is looking for a safe investment. Mrs. August visits the Maxwell home and Hannibal doesn't dare present her to his wife for fear Blanche will learn about the lapsed policy. He arranges to dine with Mrs. August at the latter's hotel so that he can sell her his plan. Blanche discovers that her husband is seen in the company of the attractive widow and is greatly upset. The next day the wealthy young widow pays Hannibal a surprise visit at his home and Hannibal is forced to present her to his wife. When Blanche demands to know who Mrs. August is, Hannibal tells her it is Sampson Halle's, his henpecked neighbor's sister. Mrs. August lends him money to buy a beauty shop and all ends well.

WHERE'S GRANDMA

"Where's Grandma" was chosen as the Student Council play this year. When Gretchen Blake invited her Grandmother to live with her she didn't realize what she was getting into. Gretchen had her hands full without inviting more trouble. There was Carol, her younger sister who wanted to marry a poor boy, and Jack who was in love with a bookkeeper at the store where he worked. Grandma arrived and was very different from the grandmother expected. She dyed her hair, painted her face, rode horseback, went swimming and shocked the whole town.

When five thousand dollars came up missing at the store where Jack worked, the blame is put on Lucy, the bookkeeper that Jack loves. In order to save her he takes the blame. Grandma finds out the truth through her private detective that Mr. Trusdale, manager of the store, is to blame. Mr. Trusdale and daughter Arlene, who also loves Jack, leaves town and Grandma brings peace to the Blake-Worley family.

Carol and Tom are then married, Jack and Lucy are also married and Gretchen and her husband, Bob, are happy again, when Grandma stops pretending to be young and is her lovable self again.

ONE ACT PLAY

ANGEL CHILD

The story of the play revolves around Amy Cramer, age ten, a demon child who resorts to blackmail, spying and prying into lives around her. Her older brother, Kenny, has to have a tuxedo and the sight of him in his father's is comical. In order to get enough money to take his girl to the dance he has to kiss Amy's foot or she wouldn't lend him the money for which she charged fifty-percent interest. Amy kept an account in her little black book for all of her creditors.

On learning that her sister Phyllis had been "stood up" on a date to the dance, Amy takes action. She called the fellow concerned, Eric Williams, and tells him that Phyllis is desperately in need of him. When he arrives Phyllis and he make up and leave for the dance. Amy then is just in time to tune the radio on to hear her dream man, Frank Sinatra, who she claims she's going to marry some day.

PRINCE OF PEACE

STANDING: Irene Meszaros, Marjorie Hollenbaugh, Ann Kassing, Ruth Ann Fish, Mary Elaine Few.
SEATED: Mrs. Now, Richard Sour, Julia Jeanne Lanning, Betty Now, Mary Lou Fish, Kyle Bigham, Olive Smith.

A greater interest was taken in the "Prince of Peace" declamation contest this year than in previous years. The local contests were won by Mary Lou Fish, at the Amsden Church; Julia Lanning, at the Kansas Church; and Betty Now at the Rehoboth Church. Mary Lou and Julia went to the county contest at Old Fort and Betty went to Republic. Betty received first place and Julia second.

A debate team was organized again this year but due to the weather which caused us to miss so much school, the County School Masters decided to abandon the County one act play contest, debate, and music festival. For this reason the members of the debate team agreed to dissolve the team for the remainder of the year.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The traditional Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Country Club in Fostoria on Wednesday, May 2, 1945.

The theme of the evening was "Spring." The ballroom of the Country Club was gaily decorated with streamers in pastel colors. Several bouquets of flowers appropriately placed added to the "Spring" theme.

The dining room, overlooking the Country Club grounds, was also very gaily decorated in pastel. The decorations of that room were set off by the arrangements of the flowers.

The table decorations were very appropriate for the occasion.

A delicious dinner was served to the Seniors and Juniors and to the members of the faculty.

The Juniors, who were in charge, presented a well planned program which consisted of various types of music, and a guest speaker. Much of the entertainment was furnished by members of the Junior Class. After the program general dancing was enjoyed.

We of the Junior Class hope that our guests enjoyed the evening of festivity.

APPRECIATION

The Senior Class wishes to make known to "Mr. Marchion" of the Dicken Studio the fact that they are truly grateful to him for the many kindness and great patience shown us in the matter of pictures. Thank you very much, "Pat."

Of course you should have that photo by Marchion.

Also, we wish to express our gratitude to The Gray Printing Company for the excellent service rendered us in the publication of our book.

And may we extend a "thank you" to all who have purchased a copy of our book, thereby helping to make the publication of the Blue and Gold possible.

OPERETTAS

The Sleeping Beauty

"The Sleeping Beauty," a children's operetta in three acts with music by O. W. Robinson, was presented by the Jackson-Liberty children of grades 1-6 on Nov. 28 in the school auditorium. The cast included a chorus of twenty ladies and gentlemen of court from grades 4, 5, & 6; twelve good fairies from grades 1, 2, & 3; and a worthy cast of pleasing voices.

The story presented Zola Kline as the Sleeping Beauty with Malcolm Hollenbaugh as her Prince Charming. The King and Queen of the land were portrayed by Franklin Long and Barbara Omwake. The wicked fairy who placed the curse on the beautiful Princess was very aptly characterized by Marilyn Bigham and the old lady who taught our Princess to weave and thus brought on the curse by Edna Boas.

This was one evening in the passing of the school year which was devoted entirely to talent in the first six grades. Entertainment previous to the operetta and between acts of the program was supplied by piano pupils of Mrs. Howard Barnes.

Accompanists for the evening's performance were Beverly Sour and Janet Now.

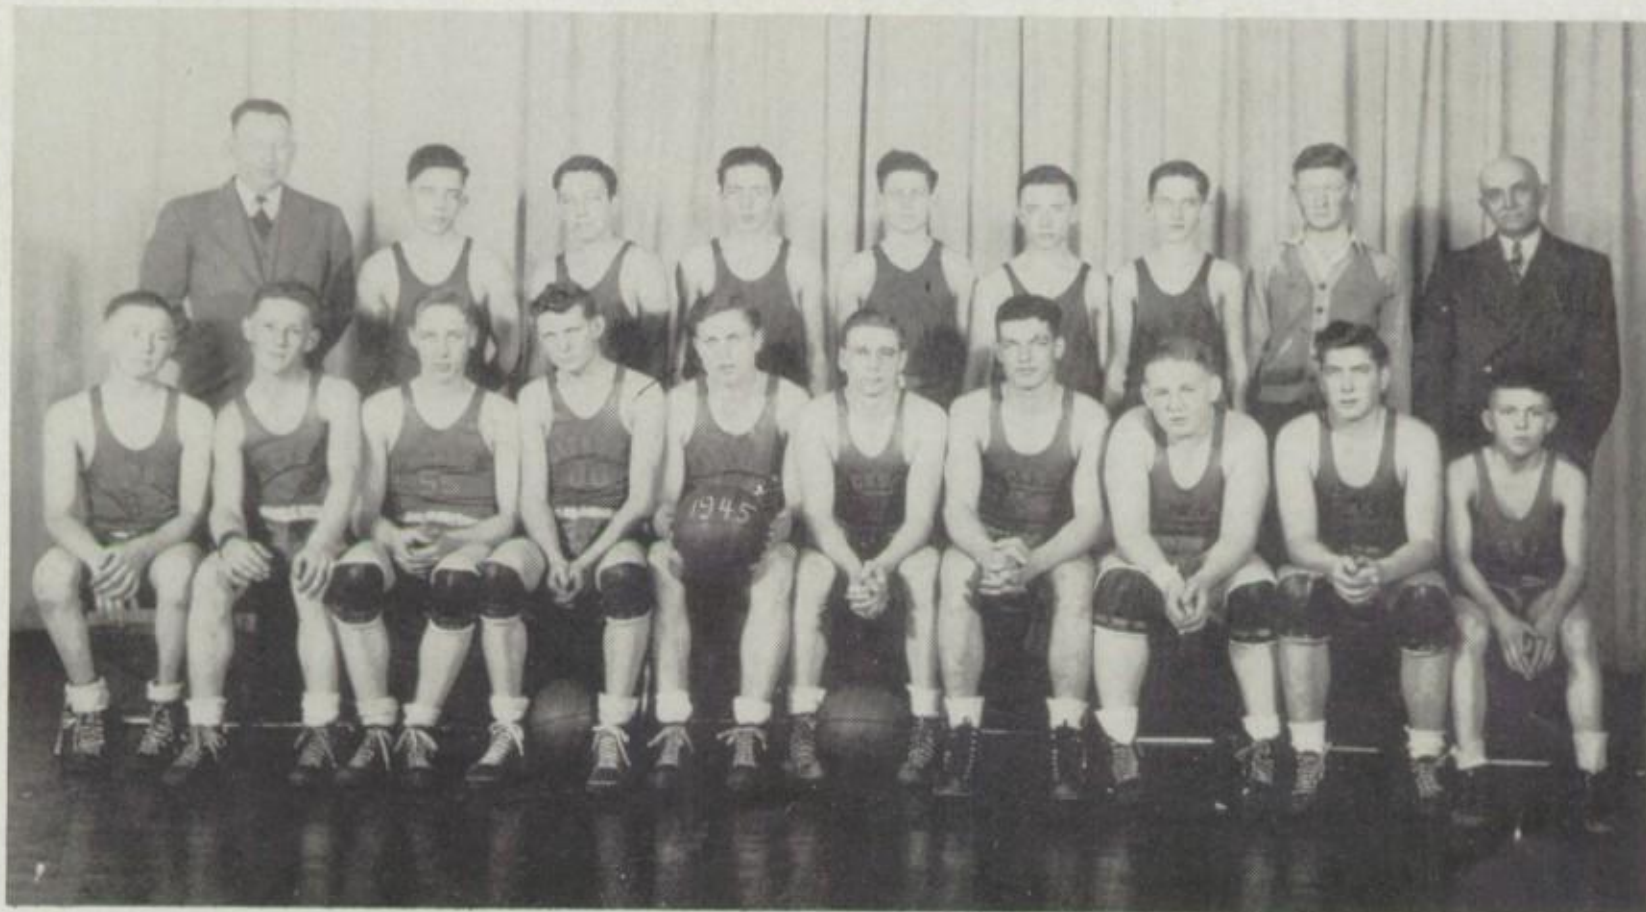

Sunbonnet Sue

Spring! Song! Romance! Ah, how these all work together when Sue's troubles find their voice in songs and finally culminate in success—and romance. Such is the briefest form of the story of this year's operetta, "Sunbonnet Sue." Sue, the girl who deserved such chances but was browbeaten by her cruel guardians, the Scroggses, meets her 'Fate' in the persons of the Colemans, who come to the village to conduct a music contest—and more especially in the person of Bob Coleman, the handsome young champion of her cause.

The cast included, in the order of their appearance:

Miranda Meadows.....Ruth Ann Fish
Mrs. Meadows, her mother.....Ann Kassing
Luella Lumpton.....Olive Smith
Hiram Meadow's Miranda's father
.....Orton Sours
Evalina Scroggs.....Joan Waltermier

*—League game.

—Canceled.

Captain Floyd Lichtle, Senior, Center.

Floyd spent three of his four years of basketball as a varsity player. Two factors have helped to make Floyd a valuable player: his fine sportsmanship, and a great ability to "sink em" at just the right time. Always kept his team in the ball game with the fine back board work.

Richard Weissinger, Senior, Forward.

Dick will long be remembered for his clean playing, consistent accuracy at making foul shots, and especially for keeping a cool head. This was his fourth year on the basketball squads, spending the last two with the first ten. Dick was not a flashy player but one whose presence definitely could not be overlooked.

Mr. Bricker, Coach

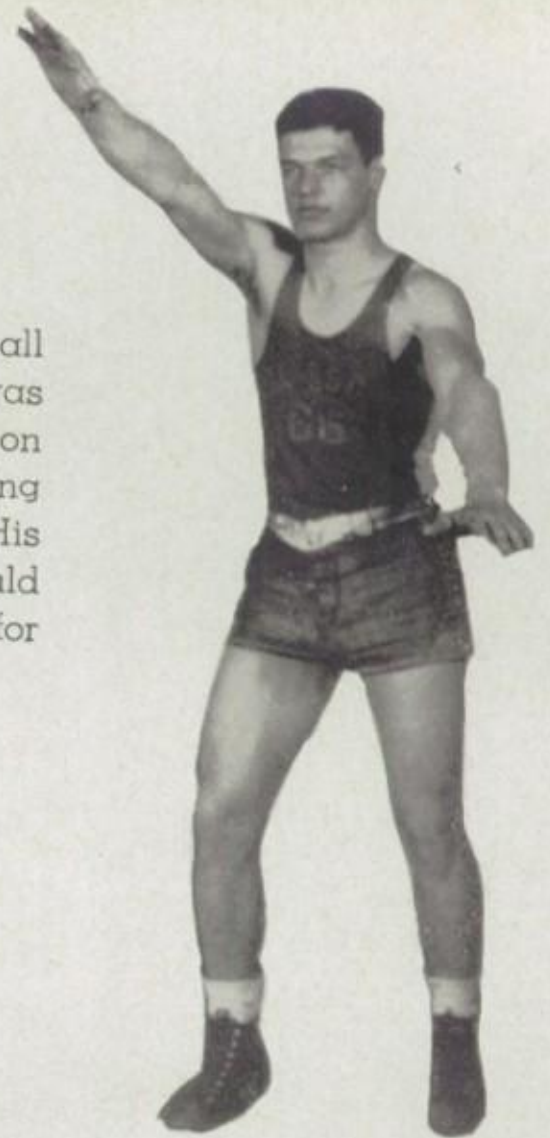

Francis Burns, Junior, Forward.

Francis found his place on varsity basketball last year, having played with the reserves the year before. Good at pivot shooting is one reason that Francis became high-point man of the season. Next year should find this all-round player in the limelight.

Don Russell, Junior, Guard.

Don is one of the finest ball handlers on the team and was always able to connect on some shots as well as giving dependable ball service. His fine defensive ability should bring forth some attention for this lad next year.

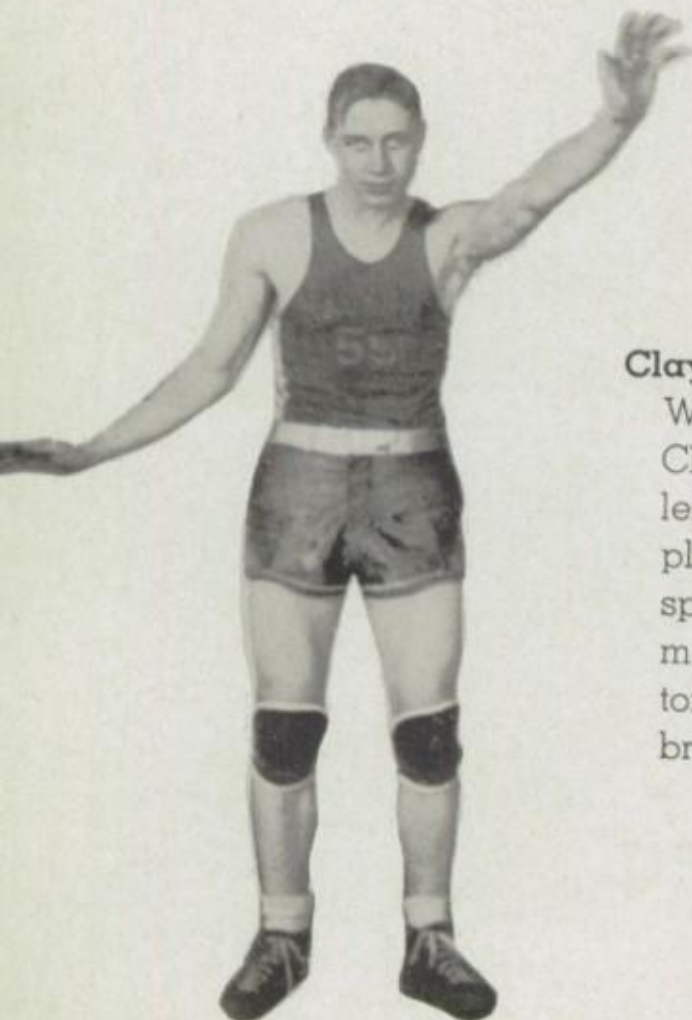

Doyle Baker, Sophomore, Forward.

The youngest of the first six, "Doc," really showed fans his ability at the Burgoon game. Excellent at making set shots. And shows great basketball talents to be used to take Jackson-Liberty on to victory.

Mr. Shaw, Athletic Director

Clayton Myers, Junior, Guard.

With this year's experience, Clayton should be an excellent offensive and defensive player. He has the real team spirit and a most valuable man. We are glad that Clayton has another year to help bring home the points.

CHEERLEADERS

Betty Now, Phyllis Lanning, Joyce Good, Joan Shaw.

Pep Song

It's the roar and rattle of Jackson's battle
That's calling us over tonight.
A mighty foe has challenged our team,
So it's up to you and to me.
So get old glory
We'll make 'em sorry
That they ever thought of this game.
We're on our way with a hip-oo-ray,
To do what we know to be right.

So here's to dear old Jackson,
Faithful and true.
Here's to our colors
Of the gold and blue.
Here's to all the players
On the fighting squad;
Fighting our battles of Old Jackson High.

Brown Derby

For the first time in the history of the Brown Derby the Junior and Senior classes played off a tie. The Seniors won.

GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER

An All Plant Food Fertilizer

VITAMINERIALIZED

Your soil requires a different fertilizer today than it did 20 years ago, because the many crops grown have sapped those vital rare elements from it that are so essential in plant life. The only way to restore them is through fertilizer built like GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER. It contains 24 of these essential elements. GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER has not 1 pound of worthless filler in a ton; it produces healthy vigorous plants and you know healthy vigorous plants produce good crops. We mix special fertilizer for Tomatoes, Sugar Beets and Potatoes. Let us test your soil and we can tell you what analysis fertilizer will give you the best results.

Order GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER from our agent CLYDE PEELER, KANSAS, OHIO, or direct from the plant. It is manufactured by GIBSONBURG COAL & FERTILIZER CO.

Also manufacturers of SUPERIOR DUST for Tomatoes, Sugar Beets, Pickles and all garden vegetables.

Carrying On...

In this War period as in Peace time . . . The Gray Printing Company is "Carrying On"!

War Economy has demanded many unusual types of printing, and releasing many of our men to the Armed Forces has resulted in major changes in our organization At the same time we are trying to maintain the best in quality and skilled craftsmanship, which has been an unwritten trademark of The Gray Printing Company for fifty-five years.

You will continue to receive from "Gray" this quality and service so far as it is possible under existing circumstances.

ANNUALS FOR MORALE

MORE THAN EVER BEFORE in the past twenty-five years is there a genuine need for a Yearbook. Very often annuals are the only substantial source of pictures and activities in which former students participated. It is a history of four years that will prove invaluable to the families and sweethearts of the boys who are serving in the Armed Forces. We are proud to have had the privilege of being a part in the planning and execution of this fine book.
